HOW SOCIABLE ARE YOU????

For a olub suoh as ours the caption poses arair enough question, prompted by a letter submitted to your General Crmmittec. Tins letter, an inportant one, is pointed elsewhere in this Vonsletter and should be read, particularly by the men of the club.

In our long history the problem is not new, and has hed to $b e$ contended win in varying degrees at varying tines. The "poblem needs attention once again, it would seem. Wilst the Comittee oan help and set a lead it is up to the male members of the Club as a whole to remedy the situation.

We have a good olub, but we are bound to have our share oi the shy and silent types. Yru know, ladies, men generally can be shyer than you think when it comes to asking ior a danoe, and some of you ladies oling tenaoiously to one man for the whole evening. Good for you, but it nakes it well-nigh imperative for M. Cis to remerber the time-honoured "S owball Waltar, "I Riee Ranesti": "Pnat Jones" an similar danoes which help to overone some, if not allof the abovementioned bifghts on sociability.

Tiner has always been sone measure of "olicuishness" In the oluo - usually by tho itsobling aliques". I wont oomdone this, but I jil point out, as so oiten beiore, that joinins the rambes is the best way or gettine to mow the cirb and its rembers. Ar result, ranbling members get together, and one can only appeal to them, and to ne, to widen the ifeld.

The $R$ ?im neports are written for your Nerelettrr br a wide and various nuiner of oapable and amusing reporters, chosen by the leaders, and I' Mraid the editorial stain have not yet cttained the acochocis-1ilef ~ficienoy to ensure a mention of everyone in turn. Y: $\because$ in? sll appreaiate whether ramblers or not, that the notorious few regularly reach the headines beoause they oan 4.2 mins ood (or bod) ramblers, and that it is a reatnessi thrust lanon them, not sought.

Tive ta not to detraot fron the timely appeal nade does not always ooincide with the expeotations of some prospective nembers, but within our limits let us sooiably weloome andentertain those who, life some thousanas berore them, feel that the club is just what they want and were looking for.

My own personal advioe to any whallflowersi is, as alnays, go put rambling! A wide oirale of fricnds will be but one of the benefits acouming. In the meantime, however, the appeal is direoted to Conmittee members, Leaders, M. Cis, Hosts and Hostesses, and all male nembers in partioular - GAN YOU DO MORE THAN YOU ARE DOING? ILAKE A BEP-LINE FOR THE NEW, AND NOT-SO-NBW, FACES. HELP THE 'LOONERS-ON: TO BE 'JODTERS-IN' ::!

CARiADDS＇B：TALK $\quad . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .$.
On a typioal＂rreshrield＂morning we set off for Capel Curig with our usual vigor（some members still wiping the sleop from their eyes）． On reaching pirkenkead someone remembered twe had to piok up two more enthusiastio menbers and so we all sat up in eager anticipation， IXcept for two statues（who，I guess，were hoping we woudn＇t see them） there wasn＇t a body in sight．The blowing of the harn and our cries， however，caused a flioker of life and so they were dragged on， rasardiass．Then away we went quite peacefully，extept for one or two on the girls leating their brand on Peter＇s shirt（he should know better by now）！！

Capel Curig lay in wonderful sunshine，nesting anid the towering mountains．The A party shot up the nearest one and we gathered ourseives together ding pared ror our assault on the ascent to Llyik Cowiyd．Being used to studs，ioc picks，etc．，we got a shock when Marcaret said iranyone for tennis？and oame out sporting her snow white footwear．Recovering，Bill led us up past Tal－ymWan and so：on to Lake Cowlyd where we had a wonderful five minutes，getting our breaths back and taling in the beauty of the scenery．Us we gotagain and on round the Lake to Garreg－wen where two strapping girls thought it was time to relievg our leader of some of the weight of his first aid cit．取y was it that he kept urging us to have more？？

Getting up to the carn on top of Cefn Criaxwydd was done in record time which，wedecided，was not quite the thing－and so we built it higher：Fát，our new member，took a photo to mark the event．Sorry Pat，insurance isn＇t（I don＇t think）inoluded in the $5 /-$ ．

After looking our fill at the wonderful sweep of the Vale of conway and the towerdin peaks DA：Mocl Eilio and Moel Siabod，we dropped gradually down to the shores of Lake Crafnant with the promise of refreshent driving us eagerly on．I think they must have expeoted us at the fara houses－for they were out！Onr leader，seeing his perilous position（rar more dangerous than any（frib－gooh）hastily led us into Colonel Bogey and up over Clcywyn Mawr，before we could pollute the drinking water Di 蚂anwst and District：

ITventually．we made the top and paused to view the soenery（its a good excuse anyway）berore heading down the fian stretch to our destination． While we were refreshing ourselves from a mountain stream，we were joined by one of the A．party and all made the final descent together after a thoroughly enjoyable day．

Tennis continues to boom and the matohes are proving a great attraction, in addition to raising the standard or our play. During the pașt month, we held a social in the pavilion whioh was most enjoyable, even though there was standing roon only. We hope to hold another one in July and nembers will leam of this through the usual bush telegraph. Unfettunately the Ghaiman of the Tennis Sub: did not have his ear tuned to the said telegraph on the last oocasion, and acoordingly missed a most entertaining social.

There are still a few temis subs outstanding and Mary stresses the need for payment to avoid pending bankrupey!

We look forward to continued good weather and frequent use of the water.spray! We are even informed fron a very reliable source that NEI BAJLS WILL BE. FUT OUT SOIE WEET- AMDS.

Your prayers are requested for Maureen Lewis' Father who is ill, and also for George Skillicorns' Mother who is still in hospital. We hope that with the grace of Goa thoy will soon regain good health.

Summer: That grand weather we've had of late. Nind you I expect yourll read this whilst there is a raging storm going on - or more like unto our olimate - a blizzard: The shallest number out for a LONG time ooured reoently on Joe K's Trevor Rooks walk. It poured nearly all the day - at least here in Liverpool. It's a shame really, because Trevor Rooks is one of the best walks we do.
Last month the rewsletter had plastered all over it, details of what and when to book for our coach trips. I can only state again that the three weeks booking plan is not a joke - and that the rule nust be adherred to. We bring your notios the following bus trips which are aug this year:

As informed earlier in the Newsletter, we are printing a copy of a letter received Irom Ann, D, and Joan, and would weloome any iurther correspondence on this subject, from other nembers:-

May 14th, 1958.
PDear Nona,
I am an old member of the I.C.R.A. So are many of my friends whom I have met since beooming a member. Up till a few wecks ago, I whs a regular member each Wednesday evening. The reason why I do not cone regularly now is because the club has truly lost its Iniendy atmosphere. Whon I first cane to the L.C.R.A. some sixteen months or so ago, I looked forward to attending the social evening. Now the girls who think as I do, are lucky if we get a dance with the so-called mele zembers. All they seen to do is atand around talking whilst eager girls are longing for a dance. If they are not talling they seen only to dance with girls possibly with their own clique.

If only they would ask another ginl if she would like to dance oocasionally. I have togehher with many others come to the conclusion that jif a boy does not like a.girls' face, she may as well not be in the olub at all. Who wants to be leit sitting like a lily whilst other girls are enjoying therselves. I used to recomend the club and even pursuaded some girls and boys to join. They all in turn saw through the olub, and how flatly refuse towaste their valuable Weanesday evonings in so drab a plaoe.

A club is supposed to be friendy, not somewhere where one week a person is friendly and the next week ignores you. It's a great shame sonsthing is not done about bringing the club back to its high standard of friendship. I only hope MoNA, that this letter will receive rurther attention from the rest or the comattee. Why don't the Host and Hostess take more PRIDE in their jobs, and wake the members get up and dance. Aftor all that's what a olub is for, to make now members and to try and keep then. Why don"t the M.C's introduoe more IADIES REQUESTS. I. arm sure ir they did, the club would gain many more so oalled HALE nembers. I have heard that the girls are FOUR to OITE boy.

Whilst about it I would like to mention also that in each IVFISTETPER the same certain girls and boys again possibly from a certain clique, alvays seer to get their nangs mentioned. I will adnit, I wiself have had my own name rentioned once or twice, but golly give the other girls and boys a chance too. See what you can do MoNA, because I oan vouch tine L.C.R.A.have lost a large number of really good nembers.

From THREE O:CE VBRY HAPYY, but now
THPEE VERY DISAPPOINTED L.C. K.A.MEMBERS.

B). T. Atherton activity at our socials - a perpetual "Ladies Night". The + last one was a huge success, the men co-operated valiently. + Pauline, in the voice which keeps her $4 \frac{1}{2} / 5 \frac{1}{2}$ year olds in + order, made the annoucements, and the ladies were inundated + with partners. She also made Peter volunteer for washing up. On his asking for one assistant, the whole male population + trooped out to do battle with the empties. They also gave + the floor an unintentional swill, at the same time. If + their mothers could only have seen then, they would have $\ldots$ + been put on the chores rota at home, immediately!

If the lads thought they left an aching void + behind then they were all wrong. In their absence, the + girls flung themselves into square dances, and were rarin' + to go when the men returned, wearing a glowing halo apiec. + (Is there an 'E' in haloes?). The M.C's were really brazen + and made the last Waltz a Ladies Request.

Not to be outdone the following week when Not to be outdone the following week when volunteers for the dishes were asked for about four girls +

+ rallied. It is pleasant to see a spark of real club + spirit. The M.C.'s job is also a little easier because. + of it. Pat Murray has obtained a formidable list of. + addresses of our washers-up, and hopes to notify you fortunate people by postd of your duty for the following + Wednesday. We would love this not just to be a waste of + postage, so on receipt of the joyful news please do your + best. There aro absolutely no objections to additions to + our list of skivvies, and new members are cordially + invited to join us.

There's been quite a spate of new hair-dors in + the club recently for approaching holidays, and a steady . + queue is forming, with Rosemary looking happily smug about + it all. On holidays, the Gatholic Holiday Guild still has + the solution to any outstanding probleas, be they walking + or lazing; at home or abroad. All Comittee menbers have. the gen, and any members, new ones particularly, should spproch them for information Therefare even a few brochures left.

Mentioning the 30th August," may seem like mention-+ ing Christras, but it isn't all that far off, and there is + a State Dance on that Saturday. We don't expect you all to + cancel your holidays, but please bo sure to be back on .. + that saturday.

John West is back with us after a bad dose of pneumonia, and it is pleasent to have him around again. A. further wander-bug has hit John Bickerstaff. Montreal is a thing of the past, and the last card we had from-htm came from Vancouver; with a glorious view of the Rockies + stretching out behand the town.

Tennis is thriving and our latest prospective raember is Molly and Tony Roche's baby daughter - they do say start young!:
