No walk cancel commitment

The committee has decided to commit to not cancelling any walk's this year despite any low numbers booked on to a walk. In order for the club to be able to continue in the future there is a need for everyone to support it with people attending to as many future walks as possible, as well as promoting the club to attract new members. The committee will monitor this new policy depending on monetary reserves within the club.

Ingleton—the survival

9 brave walkers survived a legendary walk in Ingleton led by James

What seemed like fun half way up the hill turned into a nightmare.

At the top the weather turned nasty quickly, with high winds and deep snow drifts. James using all of his orienteering skills was able to get us down the hill to safety and even persuaded some pot holers to give us a lift back to Ingleton as we came down 8 miles away from our planned descent.

Club weekend 2017

The club are in the process of planning this year's club weekend away. Typically the weekend is around the second week of September. Last year only 4 diehards went on the weekend away, even though the weekend was a roaring success it would be great to see lots more of you coming along

Watch out for upcoming details for this years weekend away.

The LCRA is a non-denominational rambling group that conducts walks on numerous Sundays throughout the year. They vary in length and physical demands and are in 3 grades:- A, B and C.

All walks are led by experienced ramblers.

A walks can be 10 to 15 miles and are for the more experienced ramblers.

B are shorter.

C are shorter and gentler but still can be up to 7 to 8 miles.

Consideration is given in advance to the difficulty of the course, the terrain, whether stiles, steep hills, or busy roads are to be crossed, and the numbers who may be expected to take part.

CANCELLATIONS must be made by the Tuesday before the ramble you have booked on to otherwise members will be liable to pay the full charge for an empty coach seat.

Coach departures are at 9.00 am prompt unless otherwise stated.

MEMBERSHIP

The subscription are £6 per year (Single) and £8 per year (couples). Subscription is renewed each September. The first two walks are complementary but prospective members must submit completed membership form before a third booking.
